Two young men, allegedly escapees from a New York state penal institution where they had been lodged on burglary charges, were taken into custody here Monday night and this morning by state and Cumberland Twp. police.

Presence of the two men, named as John Thomas Grier, 21, Cheektowaga, N. Y., and Richard Francis Ross, 19, Brooklyn, N. Y., was first disclosed when a car they allegedly stole in New York state was found abandoned near the home of John W. Eyer, Gettysburg R. 1, in the Barlow area, Monday afternoon.

While WGET announced the probable presence of the men in the county, state police and Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller Sr. searched the area.

The sheriff's office costs were $684.37. That amount included such items as the food and lodging in the jail for Smith at $2.35 a day for 16 days, a total of $37.50; $218.67 payment for the six special deputies called in to provide special guarding for Smith at the jail, enroute to and from the court house and at the court house. SCHOOL BOARD IS REPAID FOR REPAIR WORK

The $106,000 the Gettysburg Joint School District spent last year to bring the high school and the Meade School building in line with state Department of Labor and Industry requirements on fire safety has been partially repaid by the state, the Gettysburg school directors learned Monday evening at their September meeting.

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler reported as a "welcome surprise" the receipt of $2,950.35 from the state on the high school work and $36,568.28 on the Meade school work. The total at the high school was about $6,000 and at Meade school it was $100,000.

Riegler said: "The day after it was announced that there would be some money available from the state to pay school districts which expended monies on buildings to meet requirements of the Department of Labor and Industry, the superintendent started action to file forms necessary to apply for that appropriation. You will recall that the forms were several in number and detailed in information required. Also you will recall I was pessimistic about receiving any appropriation for these expenditures."

Await Inspection Report

"We have received from and written to the Secretary of the Industrial Board of the Department of Labor and Industry a series of letters with respect to the use of Lincoln Building."

On August 8, the secretary wrote that there would be a re-inspection before any further postponement in carrying out fulfillment of orders would be considered. Inspector Shaffer was here on August 26 to re-inspect the building. To date we have had no report from that re-inspection."

The school district made minimum changes at the Lincoln

Pays Tribute To Pershing

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower bowed his bare head before a simple stone marker in Arlington National Cemetery today in honor of the memory of the commander in chief of the first great American military action in Europe.

It was the 100th anniversary of the birth of General of the Armies John J. Pershing. The day was set aside by Congress to commemorate the deeds of the highest ranking officer in U. S. Army history and of the two million Americans who fought under him in Europe in World War I.

Eisenhower flew from the White House to Arlington by helicopter to perform his brief and silent part in honoring the old Indian fighter, horse cavalryman and general of international renown.

The President himself is one of several World War II officers given the five-star rank of general of the Army.

135 Dead, Billion Dollar Damage In Wake Of Worst Hurricane In Many Years

BOSTON (AP) — Hurricane Donna went into history today after a relentless march up the Atlantic Coast which spread terror, death and destruction from the Leeward Islands to Maine.

The grim toll stood at 135 known dead, scores missing, thousands homeless and property damage estimated in excess of a billion dollars. Twenty of the deaths were in the United States.

Donna headed out of the United States Monday night, moving on a north-northeasterly course out of Maine toward the Maritime province. The U.S. Weather Bureau at Boston said Donna had lost her hurricane winds and forecast further decrease in intensity.

Severe Florida Damage

The hurricane, born in the Caribbean sea over a week ago, bulged with 135 mph winds as it raked the Leeward Islands, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Florida and the Atlantic seaboard to New England.

President Eisenhower designated sections of Florida a major disaster area. Gov. Leroy Collins informed the President that the Florida keys, the central part of the state and coastal regions, had sustained extensive damage.

When Donna roared ashore near Bridgeport, Conn., Monday afternoon, she quickly lost intensity and by early evening had become just a slashing, wind-whipped rain storm. The wind velocity dropped quickly to about 75 mph, although Blue Hill observatory near Boston reported gusts to 140 mph.

Thousands Evacuated

Advance warnings set in motion extraordinary measures to prevent loss of life and reduce property damage.

Thousands were evacuated from beach areas at Long Island, N.Y., Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, as Donna rumbled toward the densely populated Northeast. Emergency measures were put into effect from Virginia to Maine.

New Englanders, recalling the murderous hurricane of 1938, considered themselves lucky as Donna blustered across the coastal sections of five of the six states. The winds and water snarled power and communication lines, smashed small boats at their moorings and felled countless trees.

New York Almost Empty

The 1938 hurricane battered Connecticut, Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts, killing about 600 and causing some $500 million in property damage.

New York City was flicked by Donna on her northward course, virtually emptying the metropolis' busy streets with a combination of fierce winds and drenching rain. Schools were closed. Streets were turned into swirling, foamy rivers and the Hudson River sped across the West Side Highway, one of Manhattan's busiest traffic arteries.

Between Florida and New England, the hurricane roared with terrifying fury, buffeting Virginia, Maryland, and North Carolina. Morehead City, N.C., was hit with particular force.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed into law the bill setting up a new federal-state program to help pay medical expenses of needy persons over 65.

Sponsors of the legislation estimate that 12.4 million of the 16 million Americans over 65 will be eligible for benefits under the medical care provisions.

The federal government will pay an expected 202 million to help finance the program the first year, with 60 million coming from the states.

By the fifth year, it is figured the costs will be $340 million in federal funds, $180 million in state contributions. Later the total would go higher. Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming estimates it could "certainly" hit $1.5 billion.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)

The Soviet Union today accused Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld of violating Security Council instructions on the Congo. It asked that the council convene at 3 p.m. EDT to air the charges.

Egidio Ortora, Italian ambassador who is president of the council this month, conferred with other members on the Soviet request, made in a letter to him.

There was no immediate decision on whether to convene the meeting.

Congo President Seeks To Control Radio; UN Relaxes

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations relaxed its restrictions on airports and broadcasting in the Congo today and President Joseph Kasavubu sought quickly to gain the upper hand via the radio.

Congolese soldiers loyal to the stocky, usually phlegmatic Congo president surrounded the Leopoldville radio station shortly after the U. N. ban on political broadcasts was lifted.

The radio station had been Premier Patrice Lumumba's first objective after he was released from a brief internment Monday.

Broadcasts First Appeal

Jean Bolikango, designated as minister of information in the Kasavubu-approved Cabinet of Joseph Ileo, broadcast his first appeal to the Congolese.

Bolikango promised an all-out effort to find employment and food for the masses. He announced that Kasavubu has signed new arrest warrants for Lumumba and six of his ministers.

BOARD TOLD SCHOOLS ARE OVERFLOWING

The Gettysburg Joint School District which has opened two new 20-room elementary school buildings in the last five years heard Monday evening that every classroom in all of the grade school buildings is filled and that "crowded conditions" can be expected in the Fifth and Sixth grades next year.

Elementary coordinator Richard A. Folkenroth told the school directors at their September meeting Monday evening at the high school that, in addition to making use of all classrooms, the lobbies of the Eisenhower and Keefe Schools are being pressed into use as special rooms for reading classes.

Folkenroth also reported that the school year had gotten off "to a good start." He said: "We are particularly pleased with the performance of the First graders. There were fewer beginnings and fewer mothers in tears on the first day of school than ever before. He said there are 1,350 boys and girls in the grade schools of the town."

Cites Good Attitude

High School Principal Clifford B. Snowberger told the board the year is off to a "very fine start" at the high school where there are about 1,300 students with 275 Seventh graders housed in the Lincoln School building because of overcrowded conditions at the high school. He spoke of the "splendid attitude on the part of both students and teachers" this year.

At one stage in the meeting the board approved use of a Mt. Joy Twp. school bus to transport Seventh grade girls from the Lincoln School to the high school building for their home economics classes. The schedule involves seven round trips a week and the board approved the arrangement with Mt. Joy Twp. to be paid $1.50 per trip.

The high school principal also reported that a foreign exchange student from Indonesia began her studies at the high school on Monday. She will specialize in home economics. A student from Spain also is enrolled there for a year, he said.

The board was given a tabulation showing there are 228 in the First grade, 203 in the Second, 225 in the Third, 252 in the Fourth, 190 in the Fifth, and 214 in the Sixth.

MISSING BOYS RETURN HOME AFTER JUNKET

Six weeks of anxiety ended Monday with the return of two local youths, William Gideon, 16, son of Dr. Sarah B. Gideon, Baltimore St., and William Jarvis, 16, son of Prof. and Mrs. Chester Jarvis, Seven Stars.

Missing since August 1, the boys had driven to Washington, D. C., after withdrawing their money from the bank and then flew to Miami, Nassau, Jamaica and finally back to Miami. They then hitchhiked to New Orleans and took a bus to Biloxi, Miss. At that point Gideon wired his local bank for more funds and the bank notified Atty. Charles Wolf who immediately notified the parents and a friend, Atty. Guise, in Biloxi, who took care of the boys until their parents arrived.

Mrs. Gideon and Prof. and Mrs. Jarvis flew to New Orleans from Washington last Friday. They then took a bus to Biloxi where their sons were. The five flew back to Washington Monday night, arriving about 9 o'clock. The Jarvis drove to Gettysburg arriving here at 1 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Gideon and her son were expected here today.

LEGION TAKES FIRST SOCIAL CLUB MEMBERS

Fifteen men and women were accepted into the American Legion Club of Gettysburg Monday evening marking the first social memberships received by the organization.

Approval for social memberships was given a month ago at a meeting of the club. Originally only American Legion members were accepted into the organization. The constitution was later changed to permit those who had served in the armed forces at times which would not permit Legion membership to join the club organization.

Last month the constitution was again changed, to permit membership by those who have no military connection. It was explained that the change permits parents, brothers, sisters and friends of Legion members to take part in the social activities of the club. While the opening of the club to those with no military connection was approved, the constitutional change provided that social members could not hold office in the club.

Thanks to the strike on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Gettysburg Monday evening had its first "circus train" through here in many years.

So unusual was the occasion that I. B. Chambers, Hagerstown, division superintendent of the Western Maryland Railway, and W. W. Gross, division trainmaster from Hagerstown, headed a group of Western Maryland officials who came here to supervise the transfer of the 50-car train from the Reading to the Western Maryland.

The 3,820 foot long train arrived about 6:20 o'clock in the Reading yards and left about 7 o'clock over the Western Maryland to carry the James E. Strates Show to the York County Fair. The convoy of 36 flat cars, 12 coaches and 26 stock cars came here from Syracuse. Normally it will travel the Pennsylvania Railroad into York but the strike caused it to make a long round-about trip which brought it through Gettysburg.

At the same recess meetings of the school boards at which the special committee on the merger was named, the Gettysburg and Straban Twp. boards voted to pay their share of the evening extension education classes for adults to be offered here this year. Other districts rejected the plan and residents there who enroll will pay their own tuition.

At the same sessions, Gettysburg, Cumberland and Straban boards designated Superintendent H. Edgar Riegle to act as their agent in applying for federal aid under Public Law 874.

to read it. Town councilmen should read it. The school teachers should read it. Our physicians, ministers, priests, rabbis and welfare workers should read it. Lawyers, judges, jailkeepers and probation officers should read it. Parents should read it, and last but not most importantly, our children should read it."

Attorney MacPhail said he was especially impressed by the young people who attended the Washington conference, especially by their "ability, intelligence, sincerity and wholesomeness."

Main Recommendations
The local attorney said, "A few of the main recommendations were that there be organized a crusade for integrity, that a national program be developed to stress the dignity of work and that youth be assured by adult example that there is a system of definite moral and spiritual values based on religious faith, the dignity of man and the established laws of society."

Stressing that any activity of the Adams County group will be based upon decisions of the group itself at its meeting later this month, Attorney MacPhail held, "As I now view it, our principal goal should be to alert our parents and nonparents as well to the great potential of our youth. There is no problem or crisis yet, but we cannot be complacent, or indifferent."

President William Lentz presided at the meeting. It was announced that both President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Judge W. C. Sheely had accepted honorary memberships in the local Rotary Club.

BETTINA GETS CASH, MANSION

LONDON (AP)—Aly Khan left $280,000 and a mansion at Chantilly, France, to his constant companion Bettina, it was disclosed in his will published today.

Bettina, a model whose real name is Mme. Simone Bodin, was with the late Aly Khan's son in Paris. He suffered fatal injuries in an automobile accident in Paris May 12.

Aly Khan's home was in Switzerland, and the full extent of his estate—believed to total millions—was not disclosed by the will.

His estate holdings in England alone were valued at the equivalent of $530,940.

Under Moslem Law
The will directed the bulk of the estate be disposed of under the "Shia Moslem law, which is my personal law, in force for all members of the Shia Moslem community in the country of my domicile of origin, Pakistan."

The will explained that under Shia Moslem law the net estate left after specific bequests would be divided into three parts. Of these, two parts would go to his lawful heirs as though he had died without leaving a will. The third part would be set aside to pay "legacies and duties."

Among Aly Khan's heirs are his daughter Yasmin, by his former wife Rita Hayworth, the movie actress. He directed that her share be held in trust until she is 21. She will be 11 in December.

Congo

While stating that Ileo's government will not seek vengeance, Bolikango said Lumumba and others "will have to account for their acts."

Bolikango himself was arrested by Lumumba about 10 days ago on charges of planning to assassinate Lumumba. Loyal soldiers freed Bolikango from prison.

The best available explanation of Lumumba's release from arrest Monday was that he had convinced his army captors that he already had resigned as premier, and therefore they had no reason to hold him further. When he left his captors he paraded through the streets shouting "Victory!" He tried to gain access to the radio station but failed.

The U.N. restrictions on air traffic and broadcasting had been for several days a major block to Lumumba's operations. He was barred from rallying his followers over the radio, and his Soviet planes were blocked from flying soldiers around the country.

A U. N. spokesman said the restrictions, imposed last Tuesday, were lifted "to facilitate the return to normalcy as soon as possible."

"All peaceful air traffic" will be permitted, the spokesman said. He indicated that the transport of Congolese soldiers will also be permitted provided the United Nations has satisfactory proof of their peaceful aims.

CHALLENGES CABINET MEN IN POLITICS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins, the assistant Republican floor leader in the House, Monday night challenged the propriety of members of the governor's cabinet to make speeches in behalf of Democratic candidates.

He said in a floor speech that "these officials are supposed to be working for all the people of the state and not just the Democratic party."

Tompkins exhibited a circular issued by the State Labor and Industry Department listing several officials, including Secretary William L. Batt Jr., who are available for speaking engagements.

Tompkins asked Rep. Stephen McCann, Democratic floor leader, whether the speakers would travel at state expense.

McCann said the speakers would travel at state expense only for "nonpolitical engagements, performing a public information service."

"Where they went to political functions, McCann added, the officials' expenses would be paid by the state Democratic organization or by the local county organization."

FIFTY YEARS AGO

John Cromer Again In Jail

John Henry Cromer, who attained local notoriety several years ago for stealing horses, has returned to the county and is again in the clutches of the law. After serving a term of four years in the penitentiary on a charge of grand larceny, Cromer sought other haunts for brief reflection. His sojourn out of the county was not of long duration, owing to his desire to encourage home industry and his failure to become acclimated in other localities. He explains his absence as being unavoidably detained and when asked about his imprisonment said he could serve a sentence of four years standing on his head.

Clean Milk Demanded: "Don't let's put too much blame on the farmers," said State Health Commissioner Dixon Saturday in discussing the question of pure milk supply, a problem that is troubling so many municipalities throughout Pennsylvania.

"As an old farmer myself who has led the reapers around the wheat field, swinging a cradle, and then in the evening milking my share of the cows, I am naturally favorable to the dairy farmer, but it is the close study of actual conditions that convinces me that the first disease germs often, perhaps most frequently, get into the milk after it has passed out of the farmer's control."

State Recovers More Canvases: The State police are developing some interesting facts in the tent stealing investigation. It is reported that many more tents were recovered on Monday evening, but some few are holding out against the search of the police.

One party of campers who were nicely located along the banks running waters of a stream not far from town had an unpleasant surprise sprung on them. It is said that the camp looked very much like a fully equipped company of militia except that from the appearance of the canvas nearly all were ranking officers. The complete equipment consisted of about twelve pieces of canvas. After the raid by the State police, approximately two unclaimed pieces of canvas remained. The discoveries made by the State authorities have not been disclosed through the efforts of the past few days. Plain clothes men have been working on the case ever since the encampment ended.

Colored Folks Here In Force: Annual Emancipation Day brings large number of Baltimore's colored population to visit the battlefield. September 13 is not Emancipation Day nor is September 22. The notice issued by President Lincoln on the 22nd of September, 1862, was preparatory to the emancipating of all slaves held in rebellious states. The emancipation however, did not go into effect until January 1, 1863, September being merely the date of preliminary announcement.

Try To Stamp Out Rabies: Harrisburg—Officials of the state livestock sanitary board are in Lewistown making an investigation among the dogs in that borough. It has been reported that a number of animals are showing signs of rabies, and a quarantine may be established on all dogs.

St. James 5 Brethren 2: Baseball speculation is not confined exclusively to the major leagues. Local fans are offered a very interesting bit of "dope" on the Sunday School League. During the summer a warm contest has been going on and at present the standing is very close.

25 CAR DERAILED

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—About 25 cars of a southbound Erie Railroad freight train were derailed just south of here Monday. No injuries were reported.

The train, 88 cars long, was bound for Susquehanna, Pa., from Hornell, N. Y., with a load of coal and lumber.

Today's Talk

ON CROSSING BRIDGES

Many there are who have talked about the bridges they have imagined—but only in their imagination.

It isn't like building a great bridge of steel, following expert plans. I love to watch the building of a great bridge. It has power and beauty. Men have concealed that bridge from the public until it has been ready to be put into service to prove its latent strength.

Before you try to cross that bridge of yours, be sure that there is a bridge. Most of those who depend upon a bridge make the same mistake of trying to cross one that never existed! There must be an object and the will to do, whether it is a bridge or a road.

I have known people who have a fear of bridges. They lack faith in the dream, and in the faith of its builder. We ought to become so familiar with all sorts of bridges that all fears of them become wrapped in mystery and wonder.

Bridges are signs of progress. They shorten distances. They help to take millions of people to their daily work and back home again. I like bridges named after a great man, like the "George Washington Bridge," spanning the Hudson River in New York City.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Birth Of A Book"

Just Folks

CONTRAST

It's failure makes the vict'ry
sweet,

For care and joy are kith and kin;

Who's never had to take defeat
Knows not how good it is to win.

The rough road oft is hard to fare,

But only they appreciate
The level miles, unknown to care,

Who've had the rough to navigate.

Men weary of the cloudless sky,
They need the darkness and the rain,

The dreary days, to look on high
And greet the sun with smiles again.

If there were never tears to shed
And never burdens hard to bear,
Though round us roses blossomed
red,

We'd pass them by and cease to care.

So stand to failure and the blow
And keep the faith when grief appears.

For out of care shall glory grow—
For sweetest smiles are moist with tears.

JAPAN INVITES

IKE TO VISIT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Japan has formally invited President Eisenhower to complete his goodwill visit there, either before or after he leaves the White House next January.

Authoritative sources made this known today after Japanese Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka delivered a personal message from Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda to the President.

High sources said it appeared most likely that Eisenhower would accept the invitation sometime after Jan. 20 when he steps out of office.

Kosaka would not divulge the contents of the Ikeda message to Eisenhower, which he delivered during a 3½-hour meeting with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

But he told a news conference that the "nightmare situation" of last June when leftist rioting caused Eisenhower to postpone a goodwill mission to Tokyo has now been dispelled.

Rep. Walter Asks
NSA Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) says Congress must find out how "a notorious homosexual" managed to get a job in a U. S. intelligence agency and "retain it despite the common gossip concerning him."

Walter, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said this Sunday in commenting on the defection to Russia of Bernon F. Mitchell and William H. Martin, former code specialists with the top secret National Security Agency.

Interviewed on a radio show, Walter said perhaps the defection can be blamed largely on "the feeling" of the NSA, the central intelligence agency and some sections of the Defense Department that tat hush nno bee investigated by Congress.

He did not say whether it was Mitchell or Martin he was calling "a notorious homosexual."

BELIEVE LABOR CORRUPTION IS
"DECLINING"

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is labor corruption declining? A government official charged with policing labor union practices thinks it is.

"A lot has been accomplished," said John L. Holcombe in an interview pegged to the approach of the first anniversary next Thursday of the Landrum-Griffin law.

Holcombe heads the new Bureau of Labor-Management Reports established in the Labor Department to enforce the law's strict safeguards over union funds and guarantees of union member rights.

Until the law was signed a year ago, lurid testimony at Senate rackets committee hearings had churned up numerous stories of labor corruption. Since then there have been fewer such headlines. What has happened in the meantime?

"Voluntary Compliance"

"Not much has been accomplished in a practical sense," Holcombe said.

"People haven't been thrown in jail, but we've gotten fine voluntary compliance. Some individuals have just decided that what they were doing is against the law."

"We can vouch for that—from the tracks we've found and the waterholes that aren't being visited any more."

More than 2,000 secret complaints reached Holcombe's desk during the first year. Most of them were thrown out after investigation because they complained of situations pre-dating the new law. These can't be prosecuted unless the practices are resumed, something Holcombe's agents are watching for.

One Confessed

Holcombe's reports bureau hasn't yet obtained a court conviction. One union official voluntarily confessed in Puerto Rico he'd taken $1,200 union funds. He threw himself on the mercy of the court and drew a suspended sentence.

Last week the Justice Department, which handles criminal prosecutions under the law, obtained its first grand jury indictment based on the Landrum-Griffin law. This charged a Plumbers-Pipefitters Union official at Tulsa, Okla., with embezzling union funds and concealing records.

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL

ORRTANNA — Miss Pauline Deardorff was hostess to the Friendship Circle Class of the Methodist Sunday School here at their monthly meeting recently at her home. There were eight members and two guests present. The meeting was opened by the hostess who read the 34th Psalm. Prayer followed by the vice president, Mrs. Althea March. The secretary and treasurer's reports were given after a reading "God's Help" was given by Mrs. Mary Hess, teachers of the class. During the business part of the program plans were made for a "nickel a spoon" supper to be held in the church hall September 24. Plans were also made for boiling applebutter in the near future.

After the business meeting the group studied Chapters 13, 14 and 15 of Genesis. The guest box, donated by the hostess, was won by Mrs. Freda McCreaf. Refreshments and a social hour followed.

Convicted Union
Agent Succumbs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A former business agent for a teamster union local who was convicted earlier this year for stealing and forging prescription blanks for narcotics, died here Saturday night.

Samuel (Shorty) Feldman, former manager of Local 929, died at the age of 52.

On Feb. 15 he was sentenced to three years in prison for stealing and forging narcotics blanks. He was later transferred to Philadelphia General Hospital for treatment of lung cancer.

He was suspended as the local business agent when he refused to tell a Senate committee whether he tried to shake down a baking company during an organization drive.

He also had been convicted for burglary and transporting stolen bonds.

SENATE OKAYS
DR. C. H. BOEHM

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Charles H. Boehm has been confirmed unanimously by the Senate for a second four-year term as state superintendent of public instruction.

The Republican-controlled Senate, after months of delay, finally approved Monday Boehm's reappointment.

There was no clarification with the confirmation of why the Senate had withheld its approval of the appointment made by Gov. Lawrence early in the year.

Boehm's initial four-year term expired May 17. The Senate met twice previously without taking action. It was reported that the objections of two senators had forced the delay. The identity of the senators or their reasons were never disclosed.

GHS-Biglerville Scrap Here Friday Headlines Week's Football Card

For a number of years many county fans urged the inception of football competition between Gettysburg High School and Biglerville and Littlestown.

Both will be realized this year with the Warriors meeting Biglerville and Littlestown on the gridiron for the first time in history. The first encounter comes Friday evening when Biglerville plays here. On October 21 the Warriors play at Littlestown.

A capacity crowd is assured here Friday night for the Warriors-Cannons scrap. Biglerville, a member of the South Penn Conference, is not competing in the football race due to playing but three conference rivals. They meet Waynesboro and Hanover in addition to Gettysburg.

The Cannons' thrilling 19-13 victory over Boiling Springs Saturday night will unquestionably earn them a large backing from the upper communities for Friday's contest.

Gettysburg was somewhat disappointing in suffering a 34-6 clobbering at Westminster last Friday and Coach Don Young and his staff have their work cut out for them this week in regrouping for the invasion of the Cannons.

Bolts, Delone Home
Littlestown will play its second straight home Laurel Conference game when it tangles with Dallas-town on Friday. Coach Ron Lawhead was pleased with the showing of the Thunderbolts when they edged York Suburban 6-0 last week, terming Suburban as one of the strongest in the Laurel circuit.

Delone Catholic, still puffed by its 8-6 triumph over its arch rival Hanover, opens its campaign in the Central Penn Catholic League when it meets Lebanon Catholic at McSherrytown in another Friday night game.

Completing the local scholastic schedule this week will be meeting between Bermudian, 20-0 victim of Northern last week, and Boiling Springs on the Bubbler's field Saturday evening.

BLUTH, WEBER LEAD TOURNEY

CHICAGO (AP)—Ray Bluth and Dick Weber of St. Louis held a slim lead today at the halfway point of the Men's National Doubles Bowling Tournament.

Bluth and Weber, who lead the eight qualifying teams into the finals with a record total of 10,234, had a point total of 79.54.

The $19,000 tournament with a $2,000 first prize uses the Petersen point system under which a team earns one point for each game won and an additional point for every 100 pins knocked down.

At the end of 16 games, Bluth and Weber, the 1956 titlists, had won 11 and lost five while knocking down 6,854 pins.

In second place were Carmen Salvino and Bill Bunetta of Chicago with 78.78, a thin 76 pins behind.

Bob Kwolek and Ed Lubanski of Detroit were third with 76.71 points.

STUART LIKES TO BE PLAYING REGULARLY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The big joke around the Pirates clubhouse is that Dick Stuart is playing first base because Rocky Nelson is hurt and player-coach Mickey Vernon is too old to play.

"But I don't care," says Stuart. "Just so I'm playing."

Stuart played Monday night. He belted a homer, a triple and a single as the National League-leading Pirates whipped San Francisco 6-1.

"I think the reason I've been hitting better lately," Stuart said, "is that I have been playing regularly. Before, I just wasn't getting that chance. Playing regularly makes a difference. It gives you a chance to do something."

Stuart says he gets all upset when he doesn't play.

Doesn't Like Bench
"I go crazy sitting on the bench. I get up and stand in the corner of the dugout. I go to the bullpen. I go into the clubhouse. I even throw towels. Not too long ago, I'd go five and six days without playing. That was really bad."

For the most part, Manager Danny Murtagh has been using Stuart against left-handed pitchers and Nelson against right-handers. Nelson is benched now with an injured foot.

"Actually," says Stuart, "I hit right-handers better than left-handers. I see righties more often."

Stuart's last three home runs, coming in the last seven games, all have been against right-handers.

Talking about his performance in Pittsburgh's victory Monday night, Stuart said:

"That home run felt pretty good. I was just trying to meet the ball. I hit a fast ball and it was one of the best shots I've hit all year." Then, he added jokingly:

"That's the way I used to hit them."

Stuart's 20 home runs are high for the Pirates. His 72 runs batted in represent the best RBI average on the team.

Johnston Signs As Warrior Chief

Johnston in his first season last year led the Warriors to a second-place finish in the Eastern Division.

One Shenandoah Fan Wins Big Bo

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va.—The Westminster purse heads this evening's card at Shenandoah Downs as the night track gets back into competition with Bel Air after having the east coast racing scene to itself for a single day.

Hurricane Donna was responsible for Shenandoah's lone performance, knocking out Atlantic City and Bel Air, but the storm also kept some night track customers home. A crowd of 3,709 bet $223,206 to give Shenandoah its best week night since Labor Day.

One lucky fan Monday night found six straight winners in the bonanza to collect $7,415.40 in the pool. Fourteen fans had five winners that were worth $227. Oddly, the big payoff came on a night dominated by favorites and on which the biggest price in the bonanza races was $12.40 on Risky Jim in the fourth.

JACK NICKLAUS HAD TO RALLY IN GOLF MEET

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A real tough 1-up victory in the opening round may just be what Jack Nicklaus needed to brace himself for a charge at his second straight National Amateur golf championship.

"A lot of luck has to ride on your shoulders out there," said the 20-year-old Ohio State pharmacy student. "I went to sleep for five or six holes and had to be jolted back to win."

"I hope I have a good chance to win. I would just as soon have a close first round. But I always play to win—my only thought is to get the match over as soon as I can and get off the golf course."

The hefty, boyish blond, who has no intention of turning pro, is used to close ones. Last year at Colorado Springs his relentless move to the championship in golf's most gruelling match-play competition was underlined by a pair of 2 and 1 triumphs, a 1-up decision in 18 holes and 1-up conquests in the double round semifinals and finals.

Recently Married
Nicklaus, a bridegroom of six weeks, slipped from a 3-up lead after nine holes in Monday's first round of 72 matches and had to rally to defeat 38-year-old John Donohue of Des Moines.

Donohue whipped in putts of 20, 18 and 15 feet on the last nine to throw a scare into Nicklaus, who rapped home a tricky 5-footer for a winning par 4 on the last hole.

Nicklaus, whose runner-up feat in the National Open in Denver last June was the best amateur finish since Johnny Goodman's victory in 1933, today takes on 19-year-old Ken Finke of Tucson, Ariz., a 1959 semifinalist in the USA National Junior. Finke was one of 56 players in the field of 200 drawing first round byes.

Finals On Saturday
The second round of 64 matches over the tree-lined, rolling 6,616-yard St. Louis Country Club course, with its tricky par of 35-36-71, will lead to two days of morning and afternoon eliminations. This will set up the 36-hole semifinals Friday and the finals Saturday.

Three upsets enlivened the first round.

Bruce Devlin, 1960 Australian Open champion, was ousted 2 and 1 by Bill Stewart, a 39-year-old salesman from Springfield, Mo.

Dudley Wyosong of Dallas, a 1959 semifinalist, was thumped 5 and 4 by Delane Thompson, Wichita Falls, Texas. Dr. Edgar Updegraff of Tucson, two-time Western Amateur titlist, fell 2 and 1 to Fred Hammer of Detroit.

There were scares aplenty. Harvey Ward of San Francisco, the 1955 and 1956 winner, was extended to defeat John Owens of St. Joseph, 1-up.

LITTLE CHAMPS MAY SEE SERIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Members of the Levittown, Pa., Little League world championship baseball team were warmly applauded by senators and representatives in a visit to the State Legislature Monday.

And they received word that they may get tickets to the World Series if Pittsburgh wins the National League pennant.

Mayor Joseph Barr of Pittsburgh, also a state Senator, told the boys they may be able to get tickets by writing to Danny Murtagh, manager of the Pirates.

Joe Mormello Jr., 12-year-old who pitched a no-hitter in Levittown's 5-0 victory over Fort Worth Tex., in the series final, addressed the Senate briefly, praising his teammates.

YANKS, BIRDS FACE BIG TEST
By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees take a one-game lead into Kansas City for the opener of a two-game series tonight while the Baltimore Orioles, second in the American League race, play the first of two at Detroit. For the Yankees, it's the end of a road trip—but for the Orioles it could be the end of the road.

The Birds, still laying eggs when they perch on top, started the seven-game western tour with a 1 1/2-game lead over the Yankees.

Now, with two games left on the trip, the Birds have lost three of five, are two games behind the Yankees in the lost column—and have a four-game showdown looming at Yankee Stadium this weekend.

Sox Trail By 3
If you're wondering about the Chicago White Sox, the defending champs have won five in a row and trail by three games. They play two with Washington, beginning tonight in Chicago, and play four this weekend in Detroit with a chance to move in while the Orioles and Yankees have at each other.

SYRACUSE MAY LOSE TOP ACE WITH INJURY

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

A chink has fallen off the so-called invincible wall of the Syracuse football team, and coach Ben Schwartzwalder is wondering if he will have to do some shoring up elsewhere, too.

Recurrence of knee injuries have been one of Schwartzwalder's big worries as he goes about the task of preparing the Orangemen for defense of their national title.

When halfback Mark Weber came up with a knee injury in Saturday's scrimmage, the Syracuse coach wondered if perhaps he wasn't more of a prognosticator than he had hoped.

May Not Play
Monday he knew. Weber will be sidelined for at least three weeks, and if the knee doesn't respond to treatment, he may not play at all this season.

Schwartzwalder had named Weber as backfield replacement to the graduated All-America Ger Schwedes. Weber, 21, 200-pound senior from Solon, Ohio, last year teamed with Schwedes as the team's two best all-around performers.

With Weber on the sidelines, Schwartzwalder is sweating out the knee conditions of end Dave Baker, tackles John Brown, and Tom Gilburg, center Bob Stern and guard Otis Godfrey.

Others Have Trouble
Schwartzwalder wasn't the only one having trouble with knees.

Northwestern's first string centers on offense and defense also came up with injured knees after Saturday's scrimmage, but neither is as serious as Weber's. Offensive center Larry Onesti will be out most of this week.

Kansas quarterback Lee Flacchiarth will miss Saturday night's game against Texas Christian with a knee injury, but is expected to be ready for the Sept. 24 game against Kansas State.

Illinois right end Ernie McMillan locked his right knee in a dummy scrimmage Monday. The seriousness of the injury won't be known for two or three days.

UTAH OPEN WON BY JOHNSTON
SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Billy Johnston, named "chief straight arrow" by his fellow pros because of his accuracy on the long shots, finally straightened out his putting and won the Utah Open Monday.

He beat 15 of the top 18 PGA money winners on the way. And collected $2,800 top money.

Johnston's 22-under-par 262 in the Utah Open was the lowest 72-hole total this year in tournaments co-sponsored by the Professional Golfers Association.

It was Johnston's first PGA victory in a dozen starts this year. The 35-year-old Provo, Utah, pro did it with an 9-under-par 63, overcoming a four-stroke deficit at the end of the third round. He shot rounds of 67, 66, 66 and 63.

Johnston's eagle 3 on the last hole carried him past the closing efforts of Art Wall Jr., Bill Collins, Ken Venturi and Doug Sanders.

Wall, of Pocono Manor, Pa., had a finishing 66 on the 6,310-yard Salt Lake Country Club layout to end up second at 264.

Collins, of Crystal River, Fla., and Venturi, of Palo Alto, Calif., had 265s. Sanders, of Miami Beach, Fla., had a 266.

Middies To Play Three In Philly
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Capt. Asbury (Red) Coward, the Naval Academy athletic director, says both the Middies and Notre Dame strongly favor playing their annual game in Philadelphia Stadium when it is Navy's home game—every other year.

Coward was in Philadelphia Monday to kick-off public sale of tickets to this year's game Oct. 29. He said the Navy-Notre Dame contest has been agreed on for seven more years.

Navy also will play Penn and Army in Philadelphia this year.

Major League Stars
Pitching — Warren Spahn, Braves, won his 19th in seven-hit 4-2 decision over Cardinals, striking out pinch-hitter Bob Nieman with bases loaded after being nicked for an unearned run in eighth inning.

Hitting — Dick Stuart, Pirates, slugged two-run homer, a triple and a single in four trips, scoring twice, in 6-1 victory over Giants.

RESUME PLAYOFFS
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Williamsport and Springfield will make another attempt tonight to play the second game of their best-of-five series for the Eastern League Governor's Cup.

For the second day in a row the game was rained out Monday night. William sport, the pennant winner, leads the series, 1-0.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have broken their all-time attendance record.

TOWN MAYORS HAVE THEIR TROUBLES TOO

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that mayors get tired of hearing: "I'm a taxpayer. I gotta right to be heard."
"Your Honor, the delegation from the Teachers' Union is here again."
"I know you like to spend Sundays with your family, Jim, but the boys from the Sanitation Department want you to umpire the baseball game at their annual picnic—and you know they swing a lot of votes."
Budget Troubles
"Why should I call him 'Your Honor' when I know he's a big bum?"
"The Budget Department is working on the yearly report of the city's financial situation. Will you sign this requisition for five more gallons of red ink?"
"The slum landlords have named you citizen-of-the-year, Jim, but I'm afraid this could be a hot potato politically."
"Your Honor, the delegation from the League for Better Government is here again."

"Jim, the voluntary contributions among city employees to raise a fund to have your portrait painted and hung in City Hall are coming in slow. So far the total comes to $3.17 — and two bus transfers."
"Judge Zilch is on the phone. He says to tell your neighbor to forget about that parking ticket, but be wants to know if anything's being done to hurry his own son-in-law's appointment as a housing inspector."
Vacation Time
"The boys in the 4th Ward are kicking up another row. They don't like the idea of that last paving contract going to an out-of-town firm."
"Maybe that rigid economy program would appeal to the voters more, Jim, if you parked your limousine in a garage for a while and drove around town in a jeep."
"Did you see the morning newspapers? The cops raided a love nest and arrested the biggest contributor to your last campaign. Perhaps now is as good a time as any to take that vacation you were planning."
Tough Scheme

BUSINESS HAS WORRIES OVER TRADE CAUTION

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Caution at both the consumer and the business level is the latest economic worry.
It wasn't too far back that the official worry was that the American consumer and the American businessman would take off on a speculative spree leading to a boom and then a bust.
Neither did. And fears of further sharp inflation were laid quietly to rest.
Some Retrenchment
But the middle course that consumers and businessmen followed now is taking on the look here and there of retrenchment. And that's

House Speaker Is 70 Years Old

HARRISBURG (AP)—A misty-eyed Hiram G. Andrews let down his usual reserve against sentimentality directed toward him when House members congratulated him on his 84th birthday Monday.
"I would be untruthful if I did not admit that I was profoundly moved emotionally by this occasion," said the waspish speaker of the House.
Members praised his 22 years as the Democratic representative from Cambria County in a round of bipartisan speeches. They also presented gifts of his favorite pipe tobacco and joined in a rousing rendition of "Happy Birthday."

LODGE OPENS 2-DAY SWING THRU STATE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, the Republican party's vice presidential candidate, launches a two-day whirlwind campaign hop through western Pennsylvania today.
State GOP leaders predict that the former United States ambassador to the United Nations will attract over three million spectators during the three-day junket.
He is to be accompanied by his wife and Pennsylvania Senator Hugh Scott and Mrs. Scott.
Lodge is slated to arrive this afternoon at the Youngstown, Ohio, Municipal Airport. From there, he is to proceed by motorcade to Sharon where he is scheduled to make a brief speech.
Goes To Mercer
The motorcade then moves into Mercer. Lodge is slated to address a GOP rally from his car there.
Also on tap this evening and tonight are a brief speech in Meadville from the courthouse steps; an address in Erie's public square and a news conference in Erie.
In the event of bad weather, the rally will be moved indoors to the Gannon Auditorium. There is also a possibility Lodge will meet with a citizens' committee in Erie following the rally.
After his appearances in Erie, Lodge plans to fly to Pittsburgh where he and his party will spend the night.
Wednesday's schedule calls for Lodge to visit Butler, New Castle, Ellwood City and Beaver.
He is slated to make brief speeches at all these stops and will lunch in New Castle.
After Wednesday's tour, Lodge returns to the Greater Pittsburgh Airport, where he will take off for Chicago to continue his campaigning.

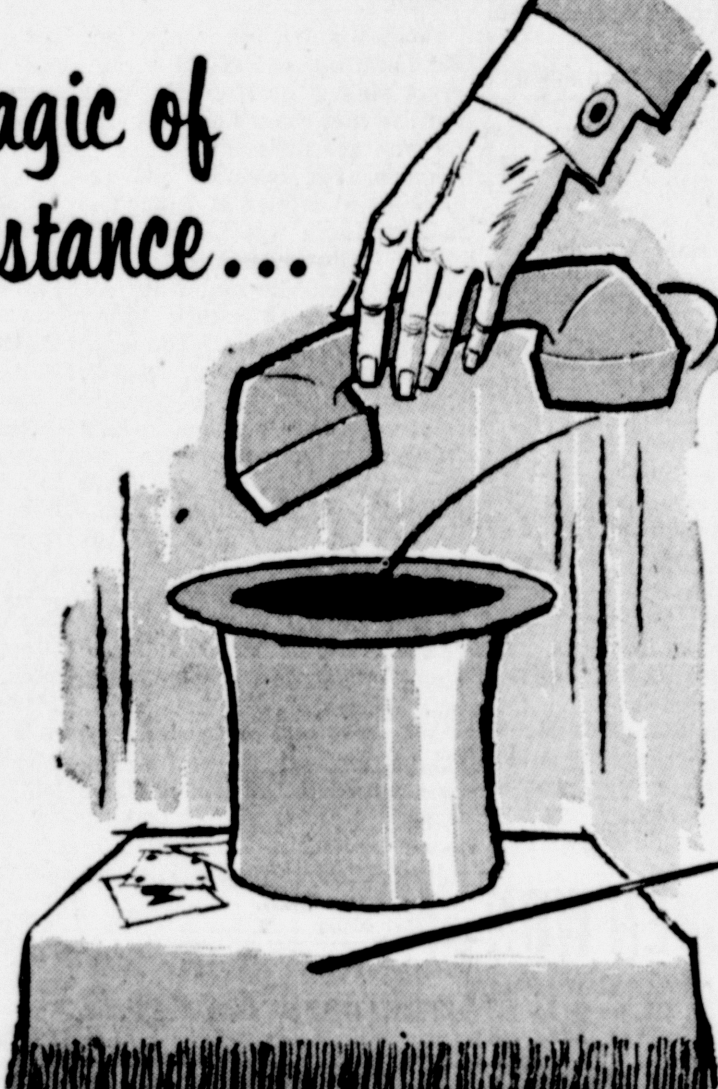

Brewery Sued By Pittsburgh Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The owners of the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates are suing the Duquesne Brewing Co. of Pittsburgh for using the word "Buccaneer" on beer bottle labels.
The Pittsburgh Athletic Co. Monday filed a $250,000 damage suit in Allegheny County Common Pleas Court. It asked an injunction to prohibit the brewery from further use of the word.
The athletic company says it has a valuable property interest in the names, "Buc" and "Buccaneer." The names are especially valuable now, the suit contends, since the Pirates are leading the National League.

Women Want Newspapers To Ignore Red Premier

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Should the American press ignore Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev and his expected propaganda fireworks when he appears at the United Nations General Assembly? Letters, mostly from women and bearing some evidence of an organized movement, have been pouring into newspapers, magazines, television and radio stations asking that Khrushchev be given the silent treatment while he is at the U.N. He arrives in New York Monday.
Newspapers queried by Editor and Publisher, the journalism trade magazine, don't think much of the idea. But some urge restraint in coverage of his propaganda activities.
Cites Red Insults
"I am writing to ask you not to give Khrushchev any publicity while he is here in this country," said Ruth B. Chapman, of Albany, N.Y., in a letter to The Associated Press. "He has insulted our President and country before the world and we know he comes here for a sinister purpose."
Former President Harry S. Truman agrees with Mrs. Chapman. "It would be best if he were completely ignored (but) there is no way you can do it when the publishers are in the frame of mind they now are," Truman said in an interview. He suggested newspapers should report Khrushchev's action but "don't give him glaring headlines."
Eye Propaganda
The Christian Science Monitor urged editorially that all news me-

Four East German Youths Are Jailed
BERLIN (AP)—Four East German youths who belonged to the "Elvis Club" have been sentenced to hard labor for dancing rock 'n' roll in the street. This was reported Monday by a private intelligence agency, Information Bureau West.
The "Elvis Club"—named after U.S. singer Elvis Presley—ignored a state day of mourning last January by playing Western jazz in the street from a tape recorder.
The alleged ringleader, aged 19, was sentenced to 3½ years at hard labor, the others to terms from 2½ to 33 months.
REVEAL MARRIAGE
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—A 21-year-old Colorado College student disclosed Monday he and Ethel Merman Six, daughter of the Broadway singer, have been married since May 6.
William L. Geary of Wayne, Pa., said he and his bride eloped and were married in Juarez, Mexico. They have been making their home here. isn't good for business.
Consumer caution simply means that there is a trifle less spending, especially for some big-ticket items. It means a bit more saving because total disposable income remains high. The summer slowdown in retail trade was a bit more noticeable than usual. A fall pickup will be doubly welcome.
The consumer caution backs up in less ordering by retailers. And then manufacturers pull in their horns, too.
Less Output
The caution thus shows up as an end result in less industrial output and a sticky core of unemployment.
Business caution also shows up in living off inventories instead of ordering ahead and in trimming plans for spending on new plant and equipment. These, too, eventually back up in declining new orders and output in supplier industries.
The caution is just that and no more. Consumer total spending is still high if more selective. Businessmen mostly have been postponing expansion rather than canceling it as a long-range objective.
Await Orders
Some are waiting for new orders to catch up with present capacity. And others have been waiting for current uncertainties to clear up. These run all the way from the outcome of the presidential election to the future of defense spending, from the squeeze on profits to the growing spirit of caution among consumers.
The latter breed is often unpredictable. What makes him decide that times will always get better and better, or to turn around and decide it's a good idea to add a bit more to the nest egg, is sometimes hard to say.

BEAUTY STARTS YEAR OF TRAVEL
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Nancy Anne Fleming, Miss America 1961, an "A" student while in high school, says she'll use the $10,000 scholarship she won to attend Michigan State University.
Before leaving for New York, a radiant Nancy, who is from Montague, Mich., told newsmen she hopes to become a fashion writer—a logical aim for a girl who likes sewing and writing.
A year of travel, fame and fortune awaits the 18-year-old beauty, who Saturday night succeeded Lynda Lee Mead of Natchez, Miss., as queen of the nation's oldest beauty and talent pageant.
Looks To Marriage
Nancy, who has no steady beau, says she wants to get married eventually, and feels that as a fashion writer she'll be able to combine marriage with her career.
Her measurements are 35-22-35. She is 5 feet 6 and weighs 116 pounds.
Second in the contest was Suzanne Reamo, Miss California. She receives a $3,000 scholarship. Third-place Ann Herring, Miss North Carolina, got $2,500. Fourth, Ruth Rea, Miss District of Columbia, received $2,000. Miss Indiana, Tommy Glaze, fifth, got $1,500.

WOMAN KILLED IN CAR CRASH
MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A woman was killed and two others persons were injured Monday in a crash of a tractor-trailer, two cars and a station wagon.
Mrs. Marian Schenck, 56, of Mount Lebanon, a suburb of Pittsburgh, was killed. She was riding in a car driven by her husband, Rand, 60.
Schenck and Mrs. Frances Brundage of Toronto, Canada, were admitted to Spencer Hospital here. Schenck was seriously hurt. Mrs. Brundage was the driver of the other car.
State police said the station wagon and the Schenck auto stopped to allow another car to make a left turn into a private driveway. The truck apparently couldn't stop, officers said, and smashed into the rear of the Schenck car, hurling it in the path of the oncoming Brundage car. The Brundage car then smashed into the Schenck auto, police said.
The crash occurred on a road about six miles from this Crawford County town.

ASSEMBLY MAY FIGHT RULING OF JUDICIARY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Final adjournment of the 1960 Legislature was put aside Monday in a bipartisan effort to defend the General Assembly from the judicial branch of government.

With both Republicans and Democrats agreed that Monday would be the final day of the session, a ruling was handed down by a Philadelphia judge challenged certain prerogatives of the Legislature.

That upset the timetable.

Instead, both sides agreed to recess until Oct. 12 to allow time to appeal the ruling to the State Supreme Court.

House Speaker H. G. Andrews, D-Cambria, described the judicial opinion as an "insidious and injudicious attack" on the Legislature and "sheer judicial impertinence."

The ruling involved the power of a committee set up by the Republican-controlled Senate to investigate allegations of voting frauds in Democratic Philadelphia.

Court Rule

Common Pleas Judge Francis X. McLaughlin ruled, first of all, that he had jurisdiction in the case. The Senate, represented by Democratic Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern, claimed the question should have been raised in Commonwealth (Dauphin County) Court.

Secondly, McLaughlin claimed the Legislature did not have the Constitutional power to set up the committee since an amendment to the Constitution last year limited sessions in even-numbered years to budget-making legislation.

McLaughlin issued a temporary injunction preventing the committee from pursuing its investigation.

"Fantasy Of Foods"

Spaghetti Magnifique

Here's an entree that will really please your guests when it's your turn to hostess an informal or impromptu get-together. It's spaghetti with a sauce made with spicy smoky sausage links. You'll find that true spaghetti enthusiasts will endorse it as a favorite. For the recipe, you'll need 1 pound of smoked sausage links. As pictured, slice the links diagonally into pieces about 1/2 inch in width. Cook the sausage until lightly browned in 3 tablespoons of lard or drippings along with 1/2 cup of minced onion, 1 green pepper which has been cut into thin strips and 1/2 pound of fresh mushrooms. (One small 8-ounce can of canned mushrooms may be substituted for the fresh ones, if desired.) The smoked sausage links featured in this recipe are made from selected cuts of meat which have been finely chopped and mixed with spices. The mixture is stuffed into casings, cooked and subjected to a hardwood smoke.

While the other buffet foods are being placed on the table, cook an 8-ounce package of spaghetti in boiling, salted water until tender. Rinse the spaghetti thoroughly and drain. Arrange the spaghetti on a platter, top with the piping hot smoky sausage sauce and presto... dinner is served. Don't forget to have the Parmesan cheese available for those guests who desire it. Depending on the appetites of your guests, this recipe will make enough for 4 to 6 servings. However, it can easily be doubled or tripled if you expect a larger crowd. If you're serving a buffet, you'll want to keep the menu simplified. As accompaniments, you might try garlic French bread and a spinach-radish salad. Allow the guests to choose their own dressing for the salad from a variety which you've prepared. For dessert... ice cream and chocolate cookies would provide an excellent finish. Don't forget to have plenty of hot coffee ready. Remember, these smoked sausage links can be served for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Try them at any meals.

While the sausage mixture is browning, slice 12 stuffed olives and measure 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt. In addition, you'll need one 8-ounce can of tomato sauce and one 1-pound 13-ounce can of tomatoes. After the meat and mushroom mixture has browned sufficiently, add the sliced olives, garlic salt, tomato sauce and tomatoes. Allow the spaghetti sauce to simmer 2 hours. The meat does not actually require a 2-hour cooking period... instead, it is an opportunity for the ingredients' flavors to blend. This is most important. And wait until you are able to detect the tantalizing aroma of this Smoky Sausage Spaghetti Sauce. Here is an entree that cooks itself. The rest of the menu can be prepared leisurely and there is no further watch which the homemaker must keep... either before or after the guests arrive. The sauce will be ready when your guests are ready.
